SUBJECT INDEX*

A

Abstracts
Scientific and Clinical Abstracts from the 35th Annual Wound, Ostomy and Continence Conference. 2003;30:S1–S31

Acute care nursing
An exploration of acute care nurses' approach to assessment and management of people with urinary incontinence (Cooper and Watt). 2003;30:305-13

Aloe
Is aloe vera effective for healing chronic wounds? (Gallagher and Gray). 2003;30:68–71 (Evidence-based Report Card)

Alternative medicine
Is aloe vera effective for healing chronic wounds? (Gallagher and Gray). 2003;30:68–71 (Evidence-based Report Card)
Nontraditional wound care: a review of the evidence for the use of sugar, papaya/papain, and fatty acids (Pieper and Larcher Caliri). 2003;30:175–83

B

Banner Lecture
Curiouser and curiouser... (Wells). 2003;30:300-4

Beds
Pressure ulcers and lateral rotation beds: a case study (Rappl) (Letter); (Russell) (Reply). 2003;30:239–40
Pressure ulcers and lateral rotation beds: a case study (Russell and Logsdon). 2003;30:143–5

Biofeedback
Pelvic floor muscle exercises and manometric biofeedback for erectile dysfunction and postmicturition dribble: three case studies (Dorey et al). 2003;30:44–52

Bladder
The addition of coaching to cognitive strategies: interventions for persons with compromised urinary bladder syndrome (Dowd et al). 2003;30:90–9

Bladder neoplasms
Does fluid intake influence the risk for urinary incontinence, urinary tract infection, and bladder cancer? (Gray and Krissovich). 2003;30:126–31 (Evidence-based Report Card)

C

Candidiasis
What interventions are effective for the prevention and treatment of cutaneous candidiasis? (Evans and Gray). 2003;30:11–16 (Evidence-based Report Card)

Case studies
A paraplegic with stage IV pressure ulcers: risk factors and wound care (Kordasiewicz). 2003;30:84–9
Case study: challenges of pessary management (Sasso). 2003;30:152–8
Case study of a patient with distal jejunostomy (Brown). 2003;30:272–9
Management of an ileostomy and mucous fistula located in a dehisced wound in a patient with morbid obesity (Jones and Harbit). 2003;30:351-6 (Options in Practice)
Pressure ulcers and lateral rotation beds: a case study (Rappl) (Letter); (Russell) (Reply). 2003;30:239–40
Pressure ulcers and lateral rotation beds: a case study (Russell and Logsdon). 2003;30:143–5

Catheters, indwelling
Managing recurrent urinary catheter blockage: problems, promises, and practicalities (Getliffe). 2003;30:146–51
Meanings and practical knowledge of people with long-term urinary catheters (Wilde). 2003;30:33–43
Urinary tract infection in people with long-term urinary catheters (Wilde). 2003;30:314-23

Causation
Causal modeling in WOC nursing research (Templin and Pieper). 2003;30:168–74 (Spotlight on Research)

Certification
Advanced practice nursing: issues unresolved and requiring feedback (Wright). 2003;30:237–8 (Guest Editorial)

Cognitive impairment; see Mental competency

Cognitive therapy
The addition of coaching to cognitive strategies: interventions for persons with compromised urinary bladder syndrome (Dowd et al). 2003;30:90–9

Colitis, ulcerative
From uninformed patient to CWOCN: my life with ulcerative colitis and the ileoanal reservoir (Follett). 2003;30:4–6 (The View From Here)

Commentary
A paraplegic with stage IV pressure ulcers: risk factors and wound care (Schultz). 2003;30:88–9
Care of the obese patient with pressure ulcers (Gallagher). 2003;30:113–18
Case study: challenges of pessary management (Hanson). 2003;30:157–8
Case study: challenges of pessary management (Smith). 2003;30:158
Case study of a patient with distal jejunostomy (Folkedahl). 2003;30:277–8
Case study of a patient with distal jejunostomy (Smith). 2003;30:278–9
Management of a patient with a malignant cutaneous tumor (Haisfield-Wolfe). 2003;30:234–6
Management of an ileostomy and mucous fistula located in a dehisced wound in a patient with morbid obesity (Anderson). 2003;30:351-6

*January, pp 1-58; March, pp 59-118; May, pp 119-164; July, 165-236; September, pp 237-286; November, pp 287-366.

Managing a highly exudative wound adjacent to an ileostomy (Roma-Moore). 162–4
Meanings and practical knowledge of people with long-term urinary catheters (Cameron). 2003;30:40–3
Patient with chronic venous stasis ulcer (Gustafson). 2003;30:56–8
Pelvic floor muscle exercises and manometric biofeedback for erectile dysfunction and postmicturition dribble: three case studies (Paterson). 2003;30:52
Pelvic floor muscle exercises and manometric biofeedback for erectile dysfunction and postmicturition dribble: three case studies (Robinson). 2003;30:51–2
Terminology used by different health care providers to document skin ulcers: the blind men and the elephant (Smith). 2003;30:324-33

Community health services
Community health nursing, wound care and...ethics? (Bell). 2003;30:259–65
Observations of nurses' treatment of leg and foot ulcers in community health care (Ribu et al.). 2003;30:342-50

Computers; see also Internet
Data collection in the real world: why, what, where, and how (Peirce and Doughty). 2003;30:64–7 (Spotlight on Research)

Corrections
Save our skin (Smith) (2002;29:276-7). 2003;30:6
WOCN efforts to promote evidence-based wound care (Ratliff) (2003;30:167). 2003;30:244

Correspondence; see Letters to the Editor

Costs and cost analysis
Tools of outcome measurement in WOCN practice (Gallagher). 2003;30:7–10 (Spotlight on Research)
